South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From TUESDAY May 21st, to TUESDAY May 28th, 1754.

CHARLES-TOWN.

To His Excellency JAMES GLEN, Esq; Governor in Chief, and Captain-General, in and over His Majesty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The Humble ADDRESS of His Majesty's COUNCIL.

May it please Your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's Council of this Province, now met in General Assembly, beg Leave to return Your Excellency our Thanks for your Speech delivered to both Houses of Assembly Yesterday.

A just Sense of Your Excellency's Zeal in the Service of His Majesty, and this Province, is imprinted on our Minds from our own Observation, who are honoured with some Share in the Administration of Government: And we receive, with all Gratefulness, the kind Assurances Your Excellency is pleased to give us, of your Love for this Province, and that your Labours for it shall never cease.

Permit us, Sir, to assure Your Excellency, that, whether in a public Station or private Life, Your Excellency shall ever have our sincere Wishes for your Welfare and Happiness.

By Order of the House,
9th of May, 1754. JAMES KINLOCH.

To which His Excellency gave the following ANSWER.

Honourable Gentlemen,

I Return you hearty Thanks for this Address, and I shall always remember the obliging Manner in which you have been pleased to express your Sentiments of my Services: But, as I shall continue here some considerable Time, I shall frequently need your Advice and Assistance in Council, I do not therefore at present propose to take my Leave of you.

To His Excellency JAMES GLEN, Esq; Governor in Chief, and Captain-General, in and over this His Majesty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The Humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE of ASSEMBLY.

May it please Your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Assembly of this Province, having now finished the Business of this Session, take Leave to wait upon Your Excellency with our sincere and hearty Thanks, as well for Your Excellency's favourable Concurrence with us, in the several Matters laid before you for Your Excellency's Assent, as for your tender Affection and Regard for the Welfare of this Province lately expressed in Your Excellency's Speech to both Houses.

The Intimation Your Excellency gave us, of your Apprehensions of this being likely to be the last Time of your meeting any Assembly here again as our Governor, fills us with a just Concern, a Concern that arises from the Sense we have, of the Happiness we feel, and enjoy, under Your Excellency's mild Administration: And therefore, permit us to wish, that your Apprehensions, in that Respect, may be without Foundation; for though, from the paternal Care of our Most Gracious Sovereign, we have the fullest Reason to be assured, that whoever is to be Your Excellency's Successor will use his best Endeavours for the People's Happiness, yet, as Your Excellency has, to your good Inclination, superadded many Years Experience in our Provincial Affairs, it is to be feared, that, whenever you leave us, the Loss must, for some Time at least, be sensibly felt among us.

Your Behaviour to Men of all Ranks has been very humane, and easy of Access at all Hours, to such as had Business with you; ever assiduous and indefatigable in discharging the Duties of your high Office: Qualities like these are amiable, and must undoubtedly adorn a public Station.

The Knowledge of Indian Affairs, being of the greatest Importance to us, we must do Your Excellency the Justice to say, that you have applied a particular Attention to them.

As we are truly sensible of your good Wishes for us, accept, Sir, of our Assurances, that your good Name will remain long with Repute among us: And, lest we should not have the Happiness of meeting Your Excellency again in General Assembly, we embrace this Opportunity, to return Your Excellency our most hearty Thanks, for your Conduct in general while among us; for which, our sincere Wishes for your Welfare and Prosperity, will always attend you.

By Order of the House,
JAMES MICHIE, Speaker.
May 11th, 1754.

The Governor's ANSWER to the Assembly's ADDRESS.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

IT would be difficult to find Words, to express the Sense I have of your most affectionate Address.

That my Administration has not only been approved of, but applauded, by the united Voice of a whole Province; and that their Approbation has been delivered by the Representatives of the People in General Assembly, in such honourable Terms, will be for ever imprinted on my grateful Heart: And in whatever Station I may be, or in whatever Country, I shall always remember, that it will be a greater Blemish, to forfeit that good Opinion, than never to have had it: To fall from that Height of Honour to which your Affections have raised me, must be dangerous and fatal; for, 'tis to your Affections, kindly construing my Intentions, and not to my Services, that I shall now carry with me this valuable Testimony.

That CAROLINA may ever continue a free, virtuous, and flourishing Province, has been, is, and, while my Life lasts, shall be, my sincere and ardent Prayer.

CHARLES-TOWN, May 28.

On Sunday last the Hon. Andrew Rutledge, Esq; and the Rev. Mr. Andrews (the latter in an ill State of Health), embark'd for England, in the Carolina, Capt. Serle.

Last Night, the Ship Nathaniel, Alexander Wooddrop Master, was robb'd of a parcel of wearing Apparel, and a Trunk containing the Ship's Register and other Papers, with a Purse of Gold.—— We are sorry to observe, that Robberies, picking of Pockets, &c. have lately become very frequent in this Town; and while People will be tender of prosecuting those Artists, an Increase of them must be expected.

We hear that some public-spirited Gentlemen purpose soon to go about, and take the Names of all such as will (with them) voluntarily undertake the Duty of a Watch.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Paragraph of the TAX-ACT passed the 11*th Day of* May, 1754

WHEREAS the persons possessed of several of the TAX CERTIFICATES which were issued before the year 1753, have not brought such Certificates to be exchanged, whereby the Treasurer's Security is still liable to answer for payment of such Certificates, which is very unreasonable: Be it therefore further Enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the possessors of the said Certificates shall neglect to bring the same, on or before the First Day of November next, to the Public Treasurer, or to Gabriel Manigault, Esq; to be EXCHANGED, the said Security shall not, after that day, be liable to answer, or be accountable for payment of, any of the said Tax Certificates, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, that notice of the same be published in the Gazette immediately after the passing of this act.

DRY GOODS of all sorts, proper for the season, with good West India rum and sugar, Madera wine, exceeding good white wine vinigar, tea, coffee, china and delft ware, &c. to be sold, wholesale or retale, by the subscriber, at very reasonable rates: Also a good negro fellow, used to plantation work and fit for an overseer; and two neat riding chairs. William Shepard.

JOHN PAUL GRIMKE

DESIRES all perſons indebted to him, on bond, note or otherwiſe, and thoſe whoſe accompts are (by agreement) now becoming payable, to diſcharge the ſame forthwith, that he may be enabled to make remittances ſo as to keep up a compleat aſſortment of goods in the way of trade, which it will be impoſſible for him to do, unleſs more notice is taken of this requeſt than of his laſt to that purpoſe in January laſt.

He has juſt imported, in the Captains Pearſon and Wiſe, from London, a great variety of compaſs ſcrew ſet in gold, ſilver, and Pinchbeck metal, fleel buttons, thimbles, knives, various kinds of locks for pocket books, with keys, and many other articles, which he will ſell for cash at 5 per cent. and for credit at 10.
